

I don't think this is necessary. We need our privacy at home and telemarketers call mostly during our evening hours with family. We are all old enough to know who we need to contact in our lives and need some time to ourselves. We need to keep our telephone privacy!

Thank you for reading...Pat Elbert